A RIBALD

I²S the Devil's Hypocrite, the endeavours to make himfelf appear worfe than he is. His evil Words and bad Manners ftrive which fhall most corrupt one another, and it is hard to fay which has the Advantage. He vents his Lechery at the Mouth, as fome Fifhes are faid to engender. He is an unclean Beaft that chews the Cud; for after he has fatisfied his Lust, he brings it up again into his Mouth to a fecond Enjoyment, and plays an Aftergame of Letchery with his Tongue much worfe than that which the Cunnilingi used among the old Romans. He ftrips Nature ftark-naked, and clothes her in the most fantastic and ridiculous Fashion a wild Imagination can invent. He is worfe and more nafty than a Dog; for in his broad Descriptions of others obscene Actions he does but lick up the Vomit of another Man's Surfeits. He tells Tales out of a vaulting School. A leud baudy Tale does more Hurt, and gives a worfe Example than the Thing of which it was told; for the Act extends but to a few, and if it be concealed goes no further; but the Report of it is unlimited, and may be conveyed to all People, and all Times to come. He expofes that with his Tongue, which Nature gave Women Modefty, and brute Beafts Tails to cover. He miftakes Ribaldry for Wit, though nothing is more unlike, and believes himfelf to be the finer Man the filthier he talks; as if he were above Civility, as Fanatics are above Ordinances, and held nothing more fhameful than to be afhamed of any Thing. He talks nothing but Aretine's Pictures, as plain as the Scotch Dialect, which is efteemed to be the moft copious and elegant of the Kind. He improves and hufbands his Sins to the beft Advantage, and makes one Vice find Employment for another; for what he acts loofely in private, he talks as loofely of in public, and finds as much Pleafure in the one as the other. He endeavours to make himfelf Satisfaction for the Pangs his Claps and Botches put him to with vapouring and bragging how he came by them. He endeavours to purchase himself a Reputation by pretending to that which the best Men abominate, and the worst value not, like one that clips and washes false Coin, and ventures his Neck for that which will yield him nothing.
