He flies from the Place where he/ was hatched, like a Wildgoose, and prefers all/ others before it. He has no Quarrel to it, but/ because he was born in it, and like a Bastard,/ he is ashamed of his Mother, because she is of/ him. He is a Merchant, that makes Voyages/ into foreign Nations, to drive a Trade in Wis-/ dom and Politics, and is is not for his Credit/ to have it thoughts, he has made an ill Return,/ which must be, if he should allow of any of/ the Growth of his own Country. This makes/ him quick and blow up himself with Admira-/ tion of foreign Parts, and a generous Con-/ tempt of Home, that all Men may admire, at/ least, the means he has had of Improvement,/ and deplore their own Defects. His Observa-/ tions are like a Sieve, that lets the finer Flour/ pass, and retains only the Bran of Things;/
