[two rules]/#AN/#Astrologer///I²s one that expounds upon the Planets, and/teaches to conftrue the Accidents by the due/joining of Stars in Conftruction. He talks with/ them by dumb Signs, and can tell what they/ mean by their twinckling, and fquinting upon/ one another, as well as they themfelves. He/ is a Spy upon the Stars, and can tell what they/ are doing, by the Company they keep, and the/ Houfes they frequent. They have no Power to/ do any Thing alone, until fo many meet, as/ will make a Quorum. He is Clerk of the Com-/ mittee to them, and draws up all their Orders,/ that concern either public or private Affairs./ He keeps all their Accompts for them, and/ fums them up, not by Debtor, but by Creditor/ alone, a more compendious Way. They do/ ill to make them have fo much Authority over/the Earth, which, perhaps, has as much as/ any one of them but the Sun, and as much/ Right to fit and vote in their Councils, as any/ other: But because there are but seven Electors/ of the German Empire, they will allow of no/ more to dispose of all other; and most foolishly/ and unnaturally depose their own Parent of its/ Inheritance; rather than acknowledge a Defect/ in their own Rules. These Rules are all they/ have to shew for their Title; and yet not one/ of them can tell whether those they had them/ from came honeftly by them. Virgil's Def-/ cription of Fame, that reaches from Earth/ to the Stars, tam ficti pravique tenax, to carry/ Lies and Knavery, will serve Astrologers with-/ out any sensible Variation. He is a Fortune-/ Seller, a Retailer of Destiny, and petty Chap-/ man to the Planets. He casts Nativities as/ Gamesters do false Dice, and by slurring and/ palming fextile, quartile, and trine, like fize,/ quater, trois, can throw what chance he/ pleases. He sets a Figure, as Cheats do a Main/ at Hazard; and Gulls throw away their Money/ at it. He setches the Grounds of his Art so/ far off, as well from Reason, as the Stars, that,/ like a Traveller, he is allowed to lye by Au-/ thority. And as Beggars, that have no Money/ themfelves, believe all others have, and beg/ of those, that have as little as themselves: So/ the ignorant Rabble believe in him, though/ he has no more Reason for what he professes,/ than they./
